

NEW YORKERS START PATRONAGE INQUIRY

Fitzgerald, in Call, Implies Metropolis Has Been Neglected by Party.

Adding to the complications of the New York political situation, Congressman Fitzgerald, a New York City Democrat who is affiliated with the organized democracy which the "young Democrats" are fighting, last night issued a call for a conference of all majority members representing the metropolis in the House.

The Fitzgerald statement says the conference is to arrange to take some definite step regarding the political situation in New York and to present to the President certain facts which have been ignored by those professing his confidence.

Between the lines the Fitzgerald statement is a challenge to the McAdoo-Malone-Polk contingent, which just now seems to be taking quite a part in New York politics, attacking Tammany as an incidental.

Not only will the conference of New York City Democrats be held in Mr. Fitzgerald's office next Monday touch upon the political situation, but the patronage issue will be to the fore. The so-called Tammany members of the House have received practically no patronage from the present Administration.

Mixed Neutrality.

Mr. Fitzgerald's statement intimates very broadly that he and his colleagues are tired of the slurs cast upon organized Democracy in the Empire State by the "young Democrats."

The New York members are at the approaching campaign, with the President assumed to be neutral and Mr. McAdoo and Mr. Malone far from neutral. If organized Democracy is so attacked by the young politicians, how are the Tammany and near-Tammany men to get by in November?

Mr. Fitzgerald's peppy statement reads: "I have invited the Democratic Representatives in Congress from the city of New York to meet in my office on July 27 to take some definite action regarding the situation in New York. I have been urged to have this gathering for some time, but I have refrained in the hope that matters might be otherwise adjusted."

"The purpose of the gathering is to arrange for presenting to the President certain facts which have been ignored by those professing his confidence."

FIRST CANAL TOUR OF NEWLYWEDS ON

Young Peruvian Student at "Aggie" Takes Virginia Girl Home as Bride.

The first honeymoon from the United States to Peru over the Panama Canal route began today with Washington as the starting point, when Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Marmol, who were married here last night, embarked for New York on the start of their bridal tour. The bridegroom is a native of Peru and son of a wealthy cotton grower. The bride was Miss Clara V. Lambert, of Bridge-water, Va.

As planned the honeymoon of the couple will cover more than 4,000 miles and will last two years.

It was a case of love at first sight, friends of the couple say, when Marmol met Miss Lambert. He was attending the Maryland Agricultural College, at College Park, Md. Miss Lambert visited friends in College Park and was introduced to the Peruvian by her hostess. The wedding was postponed until Marmol could finish his studies at the college, which involved a course in cotton culture.

This summer he was graduated and immediately arranged to be married. No sooner had he set to make arrangements he realized that there was another obstacle in Cupid's path. Miss Lambert is a Protestant and the Peruvian is a Catholic. The bridegroom went to Baltimore, received a dispensation from Cardinal Gibbons, wed the girl of his choice, and came back to Washington with the path of love completely cleared. The couple were married by the Rev. Thomas E. McGuigan, of St. Patrick's Church.

PREPARE FOR PROBE OF ROCK ISLAND

Examiners of I. C. C. Will Begin on Books as Preliminary to Actual Inquiry.

Not before next fall will the Interstate Commerce Commission begin its investigation of the Rock Island railroad, Chief Counsel Joseph W. Folk said today. It is possible that examiners will be put to work on the books of the Rock Island before that time, but this will be simply preliminary to the actual inquiry.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is going to have its hands full with railroad investigations next fall and winter. Representatives of the commission are now engaged in estimating the physical value of the Pere Marquette as a preliminary to investigation. In this connection, the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road will also be investigated. George W. Perkins and other financiers are to be called to explain the conditions which brought financial trouble to these roads.

Louis D. Brandeis will have charge of the Pere Marquette investigation, and Chief Counsel Folk will conduct the hearings in the Rock Island probe.

Congressman Falconer Gives Talk at Mission

The responsibility of true citizenship rests upon the shoulders of every man, and all members of society can do their part in raising the standard of American citizenship, declared Congressman Falconer, of Washington, in addressing the Gospel Mission, 214 John Marshall place northwest, last night. Mrs. Falconer sang several sacred songs.

Herbert W. Kline, superintendent of the mission, who just returned from Europe where he studied mission work, made a brief report of his trip.
